

Activate Prior Knowledge

- What is the title of the theme?
- Hurricanes: Weather at its Wildest is a nonfiction selection about one of nature's most powerful and destructive forces, hurricanes.

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education
Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

This slide has a light gray background with a faint image of a beach and dead trees. The title "Activate Prior Knowledge" is at the top left. Below it are two bullet points. The second bullet point includes an image of a house with a damaged roof and several cars parked in front. At the bottom right, there is a small copyright notice.

Activate Prior Knowledge

- What do you know about hurricanes?
- Have you seen hurricanes firsthand or on television or a movie?

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education
Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

This slide has a light gray background with a faint image of a beach and dead trees. The title "Activate Prior Knowledge" is at the top left. Below it are two bullet points. The second bullet point includes an image of a young girl with blonde hair sitting on a couch. At the bottom right, there is a small copyright notice.

Text Organization

As you listen to Hurricanes: Weather at its Wildest, pay attention to how the author has organized the facts.

Selections are often organized by:

- sequence
- main idea and details
- cause and effect

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

While You Read

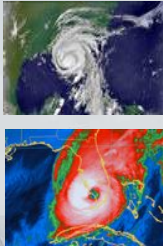

What details does the author give in the section "What is a hurricane?" that help you understand how destructive hurricanes can be?

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

While You Read

- What is the first paragraph under the heading "Journey of the Hurricane" mostly about?
- How is the paragraph organized?
- How can you tell?

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

While You Read

What three things make hurricanes a dangerous threat to people and property?

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

While You Read

- The first paragraph under the heading "Protective Measures" states a cause and an effect.
- What are they?

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

While You Read

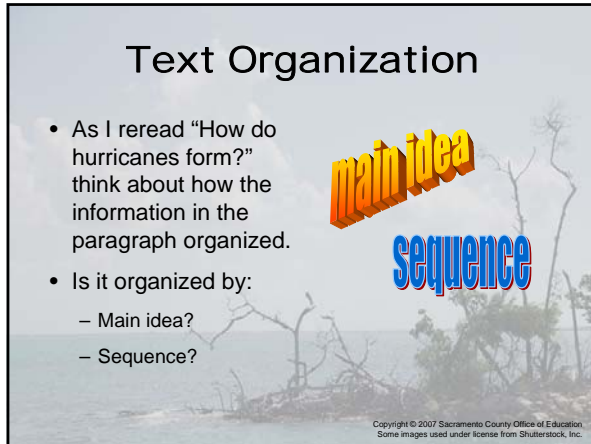

- Were there any parts to the selection that you didn't understand?
- Summarize the selection by describing the cause and effect of hurricanes.

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

Text Organization

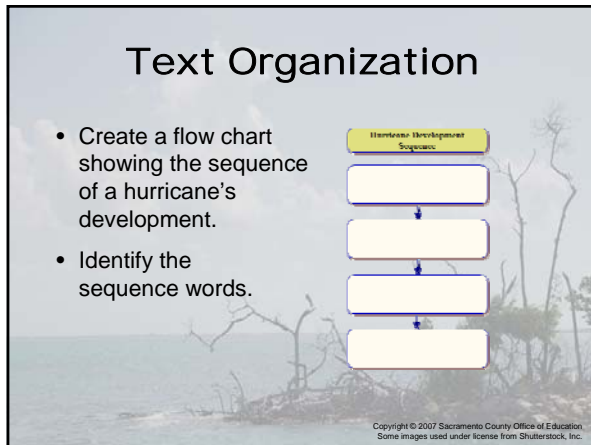

- As I reread "How do hurricanes form?" think about how the information in the paragraph organized.
- Is it organized by:
 - Main idea?
 - Sequence?

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

Text Organization

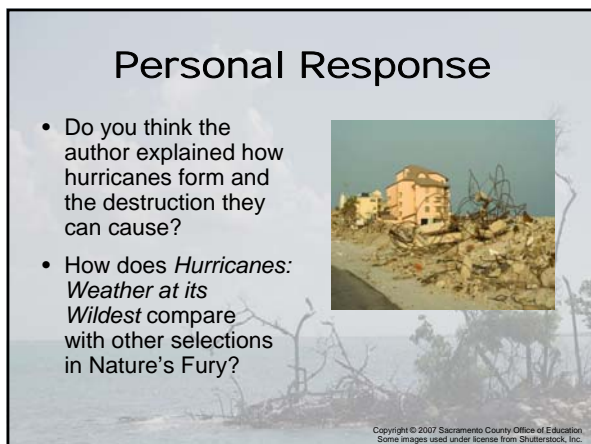

- Create a flow chart showing the sequence of a hurricane's development.
- Identify the sequence words.

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.

Personal Response

- Do you think the author explained how hurricanes form and the destruction they can cause?
- How does Hurricanes: Weather at its Wildest compare with other selections in Nature's Fury?

Copyright © 2007 Sacramento County Office of Education. Some images used under license from Shutterstock, Inc.
